

USAWC WARGAMES SUPPORT SENIOR LEADERS

The primary audience:

- Army Chief of Staff
- Army Staff
- Army Service Component Commands
- Combatant Commands

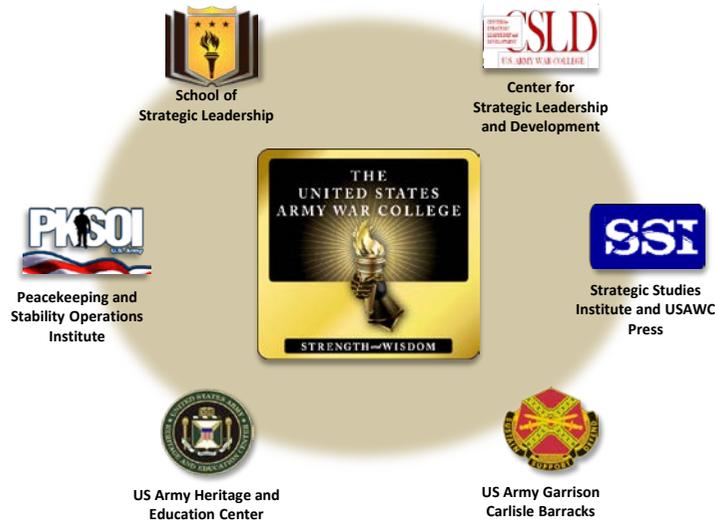

Secondary audiences:

- Joint Staff
- Senior policy makers
- USAWC Researchers
- Other Governmental Agencies

For USAWC and wargame participants, there is inherent value in the exchanges of ideas and critical thought among a highly qualified, diverse array of professionals.

USAWC wargames help to build and expand professional networks for regional and functional communities of interest.

Mission: The USAWC educates and develops leaders for service at the strategic level while advancing knowledge in the global application of Landpower

For more information about the United States Army War College Wargaming Capability, Visit our website:

<http://www.csl.army.mil/lcdw/strategicwargamingdivision/default.aspx>

Or contact:

Mr. Jim Markley
Deputy Director of Strategic Wargaming
James.c.markley.civ@mail.mil
(O) 717-961-2076

UNITED STATES ARMY WAR COLLEGE

Strategic Wargaming Series

USAWC Wargaming Niche

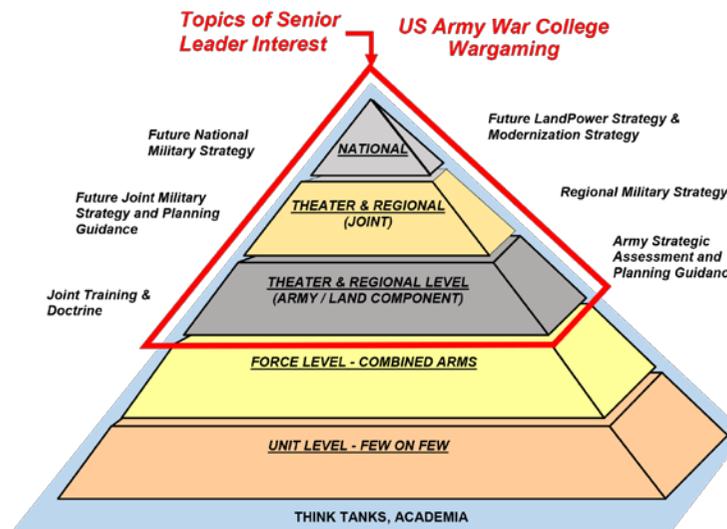

The US Army War College conducts strategic wargames to investigate, research and analyze strategic issues or areas that are not typically being addressed by other wargaming organizations.

The Strategic Wargaming Series leverages USAWC's unique characteristics and capabilities to address matters of national interest as they relate to the military in general and the employment of Landpower in particular.

Strategic Wargaming Series Characteristics

- Academic Environment
- Landpower Focused
- 6-8 Games per year
- Near to Long-term
- Political - Military Strategic
- Inform Decision Making
- Structured, Facilitated Interaction Between Experts

USAWC Strategic Wargaming Series

Wargaming focus is at the Theater-level and above

USAWC wargames help decision makers to better understand and bring clarity to national security issues enabling better and more informed decisions.

Leverages Diverse Group of Experts

- Academia
- Foreign Governments
- Non-Governmental
- Inter-Governmental
- Interagency
- US Military
- USAWC Staff and Faculty
- USAWC Students
- Army Chief of Staff Fellows
- International Fellows
- Think Tanks
- Industry

